

If you're a stage director, you and your ensemble have recordings.
The American Prize wants to see them.
It is time to receive the accolades you have earned.

In an age when the performing arts are more marginalized than ever before and media coverage harder than ever to get, The American Prize provides the visibility and recognition you and your organization need to stand out from the rest.

Since 2010, The American Prize has provided evaluation, recognition and reward to America's finest performing artists and composers. The American Prize is unique—the only national, nonprofit competitions in the performing arts based solely on the evaluation of commercial and noncommercial CD and DVD recordings. The American Prize has awarded more than $40,000 in prize money in all categories since 2010.

- No live competition. The American Prize judges recorded performance only.
- No age limits.
- Separate divisions for professional, college/university, community, or high school age companies & their directors.
- Few repertoire restrictions.
- Expert written evaluations to all contestants who rank “finalist” or higher.
- Personalized certificates to all participants.
- Cash prizes up to $500.
- Published timelines for the announcement of semi-finalists, finalists and winners.
- 1-page application form.
- Low application fees.
- Not-for-profit organization.

Complete information, application forms, biographies of judges and past winners:
www.theamericanprize.org

The American Prize grew from the belief that a great deal of excellent music being made in this country goes unrecognized and unheralded, not only in our major cities, but all across the country...in schools and churches, in colleges and universities, and by community and professional musicians.

Winners of The American Prize receive cash awards, award certificates, and unbiased written evaluations from our national panel of distinguished judges, but more importantly, laureates of The American Prize at all levels of achievement derive local, regional and national recognition to help generate jobs, build audiences and sustain careers.

2016 National Competitions for Stage Directors & Theater Ensembles:
The American Prize in Directing
The American Prize in Theater Performance
Three divisions: theater music theater opera

EXTENDED Postmark Deadline Tuesday, May 17, 2016

EASY:

- 1-page application form (on website—see "competitions" menu to download)
www.theamericanprize.org
- Send bio and photo by email.
- Send CD, DVD or VHS tape by mail or provide links to online recordings. All applications are acknowledged upon receipt.

NEW ONLINE OPTIONS:

- NEW—you now have the option to pay application fees online—or by check, credit card or money order.
- NEW—you now have the option to provide online links to your audition selections, or send recordings by mail.
- NEW—you now have the option to fill out the application on your computer and email it directly to the office—or print out, fill by hand and send by mail.

Questions? theamericanprize@gmail.com

ABOUT YOUR RECORDINGS:

You need not prepare a special recording for The American Prize. A previous recording, whether of a concert made in front of an audience or one created in a recording session without an audience, is perfectly acceptable. Neither the location nor the repertoire of any qualified individual or ensemble limits eligibility, provided the general guidelines have been met. Excellence within categories is the primary criteria for the selection of finalists and winners. The competitions are open to US citizens living in this country or abroad and others studying or working in the U.S. There is no restriction against previous winners re-applying.

Complete information: www.theamericanprize.org

Questions: please email theamericanprize@gmail.com

David Katz, chief judge
HCMT—The American Prize
25 Hamilton Drive, Suite 100
Danbury, CT 06811
203 746-2694

The American Prize is administered by Hat City Music Theater, Inc., a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization.